

Prosser Guns for 2nd Win

Roy Prosser, the former New York jockey who has had a string of tough luck in scoring his "maiden" victory at Carrol Speedway but who finally got across the line with a checkered flag last week, will be gunning for his second straight midget auto racing victory when the powerful little doodlebugs gather again Saturday night.

He will be rarin' to go Saturday along with Don Freeland, who seems to wear the toga of "always a bridesmaid, but seldom a bride," having finished second again last week; Bob Cross, who's back in the point standings lead again; Troy Ruttman, the badboy from Ontario; Jimmie Davis, Jim Rigby, Chuck Leighton, Jay Frank and a host of others.

Burke vs. L. A. Police
Vic Penney, colorful manager of the Los Angeles Police who has been known on various occasions as the "Bad Penny," "Indian Head" and numerous other nicknames not quite so complimentary, proved to be a crowd pleaser with his antics that led his charges to a 6-4 victory over the powerful but less colorful Burke's Service team.

Alloy vs. Rockets
For eight innings the Alloy Diecraft-Long Beach Rocket still was a nice, quiet, subdued and gentlemanly game of baseball. But commencing the ninth inning with the Rockets at bat, Alloy blew up as though they were hit in the solar plexus with an atom bomb.
No less than 16 batters for Long Beach batted in the ninth. They collected 10 runs off the normally hard-to-get-to Tillye Schaffer, with a total of 16 hits. Everybody but one member of the Rockets hit at least once. Stan White, catcher, hit three for five driving in a total of five runs.

Alloy . . . 000 200 000—4 4 3
Batteries: Rockets—Bachtelle and White. Alloy, Schaffer and Lyons, Caro.
Arcadia vs. Eastside
Arcadia started off with a two-run first inning lead but lost it in the sixth when Eastside found the range on Pitener Hal Harrison and garnered seven tallies. Eastside went on to win 7-4 and eliminate their opponents from the tournament.
Eastside's victory means they will be pitted against the winner of last night's contest between the Dedeaux Trojans and Montebello.
Eastside . . . 000 007 000—7 13 3
Arcadia . . . 200 002 000—4 4 3
